HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw and is thereof readily and speedily separated. It rests on Platt's Perch so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant and as convenient safe and secure.
It is easy to change to the style of coupling now in buggy or other vehicles, with the same and will be adjusted.
We have come to the conclusion that this new invention surpasses all others in use. Reasons: We consider it the superior to the Forestic Platt's, and to be favorably considered the best in use.

DEPARTURE OF THE RED SEA

EASTERN DATES TO APRIL 18

(Congressional)

WASHINGTON April 11—In the House of Representatives the bill to grant a right of way to the Memphis, Carthage and Little Rock Railroad Company through the Indian Territory, reported favorably by the Committee on Indian Affairs, was taken up and passed. The bill to authorize the Secretary of War to issue certain arms to the Governor of Arkansas, was discussed at length, but no decision reached. The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Army bill, which was discussed at length, but no decision reached. The bill was then reported to the House, and the previous question ordered. The bill was then passed, and the House adjourned.

In the Senate, a petition was presented from the Legislature of Georgia, asking the withdrawal of troops from the State of Georgia. Mr. Edmunds introduced a bill to admit Prince Edward Island into the Union. Mr. Sherman introduced a bill to provide for the payment of the Alabama claims. Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to provide for the payment of the Alabama claims by the issue of bonds. Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to provide for the payment of the Alabama claims by the issue of bonds. Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to provide for the payment of the Alabama claims by the issue of bonds.

The Senate then went into executive session, and after a short time adjourned.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Army bill, which was discussed at length, but no decision reached. The bill was then reported to the House, and the previous question ordered. The bill was then passed, and the House adjourned

The Daily Oregonian

DNESDAY MORNING APRIL 20, 1870

Mr Grover in 1859

From the Oregon Herald

The OREGONIAN yesterday had an article harg against Mr Grover that in 1856 he refused support Hon Lansing Stout for Congress th the record and the recollection of the people inly refute the charge In fact there is n ounds at all whatever for the assertion Mr over did vote for Mr Stout in 1859 and used his influence to elect him to the place he ight

This is a matter for Democrats to settle long themselves, and is not of much importance at this time except for the light it throws upon Mr Grover s general character this view, however it is worth some at ntion Mr Grover did, indeed, vote for r Stout, but he voted for him simply to ep his political record clear, after having orstly conspired with Messrs Bush Nes ith, and others to defeat him These gen eman, leading characters of the dethroned emocratic dynasty that had controlled Oregon for ten years, wanted Mr Stout defeated a rebuke to Gen. Lane They charged at Mr. Stout had been nominated by fraud rough the machinations of Lane s tools, d sedulously propagated the idea that Democrats were under no obligation to support im.

To ascertain the spirit by which Mr. Grover as actuated at that time it is only necessary o turn to the files of the Oregon Statesman Mr Bush was Mr. Grover's political master, d his thinking and planning for him, and, y playing on his self-interest, could manage im as he chose. The Statesman, therefore, as not more a reflection of Mr Bush's sen- ments than of those of Mr. Grover. So oon as Mr. Stout was nominated the States am came out with a long article giving the nside history of the Convention, and ttempting to show that the nomination of Mr. Stout was the result of shameless bargaining and committed frauds Every part of he proceedings, as the Statesman showed, was arranged in a secret caucus to which the riends of Mr. Grover were not admitted The plan of permanent organization, order of business, appointment of committee on credentials, construction of platform, etc , etc., were all fixed up in this caucus. The proceedings thus arranged was gone through with without material variation, and Mr. Stout was nominated by forty votes against thirty-three for Grover. The Statesman said that "the defeat of Mr. Grover would strike the country with surprise, not unmixed with regret and indignation;" and that "regardless alike of the first and dearest interests of the State, and the known wishes of a large majority of the Democratic party, a minority of the State Convention had procured the sacrifice of Mr. Grover " These mutterings of discontent were followed the succeeding week by an elaborate editorial on "Obligations to Party," in which it was argued at great length that "whenever a party suffers itself, under the misguidance of unscrupulous or interested demagogues, to be led astray from its principles, the partisan is absolved from all further allegiance to the organization." The direct meaning of this was that Democrats were not bound to support Mr. Stout, since he owed his nomination to "unscrupulous and interested demagogues." Every issue of the paper until the election was simply devoted to the propagation of disgruntlement, That this was done with the privity of Mr. Grover, and that his sentiments on the subject were identical with those expressed in the Statesman, does not admit a doubt. Mr. Grover did nothing at all in behalf of Mr. Stout, and put forth no effort whatever to elect him. He did vote for him, it is true; and so did Mr. Bush, notwithstanding they both had done so much by unfriendly influence to defeat him. On the 7th June, but a few days before the election, the Statesman published an article under the caption, "Have we a Democratic Party Among Us?" from which the following is an extract.

> We did have a Democratic party and a Democratic organization, but where is it, or who compose it now? If it exists, the soul and spirit of it is an organized band of brainless personal adherents, nicely drawn from the opposition ranks, and are studiously determined as ever to defeat and drive from public confidence every man whose record warns him as a faithful, consistent Democrat. If it exists it presents the strange anomaly of an organized fee within, engaged in the work of defeating the Democratic party. If it has a democratic record is worth nothing it is.

When the election returns began to come in, the Statesman was jubilant. It said "The returns show that the dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks extended all over the State," and pointed with great glee to the 300 majority for Mr. Logan in Marion.

We have gone over this record simply because it so well illustrates the character of Mr. Grover. Every one familiar with Oregon politics knows that his conduct precisely accorded with that of Mr. Bush, who has left this record in the Statesman. It appears, then, that Mr. Grover, after he was defeated for the nomination, fell into a fit of wrathful sulks; that he and his backers deemed themselves rightfully entitled to control the party, and that when the sceptre was wrested from them by an "unlawful hand" they considered themselves absolved from party obligations, that they did what they could to create discontent and dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks, and, after diverting hundreds, perhaps thousands, of votes from Mr Stout, they then, on the poor plea of preserving their record, were unmanly enough to sacrifice their independence by turning round and voting for him Their influence was all against Mr. Stout, that was for revenge. Their votes were thrown for him, that was for their own political advantage in the future. It was Mr. Grover's hope at once to break down Mr Stout and prepare for his own re-ascension to political preferment and honor. This history is valuable now as serving to show the character of the man, as illustrating his selfishness, as uncovering his intriguings, and giving an insight into the principles by which all his actions are regulated and guided Mr. Grover's greatest care is Number One It can almost be said of him, as Cicero said of a person against whom one of his philippics was directed "He is a lover of himself, without a rival"

The Standing of Oregon at the National Capital

It would be far better for Oregon to have no representation in Congress than to be represented there by men who are pledged to that "pestilential abortion, (we borrow a phrase from a Democratic paper), the Albany platform. Better for Oregon that no one should appear in her name at the National Capital than that those should appear for her there who would advocate such propositions as the Democratic party of this State is pledged to in this campaign

In the first place such men, appearing on the floor of Congress as advocates of such a cause, would destroy the reputation of Oregon and bring the State into deep and lasting disgrace Oregon would at once gain a singular and unenviable notoriety The advocacy of republican unity by a single member of the House Mungen of Ohio caused an outburst of indignation from both parties in Congress and from every quarter in the Union Democrats hastened to disavow his utterances and to denounce them as infamous Shall such sentiments be proclaimed also in the Senate and by Senators from Oregon? Are we ready to accept for our State the dishonored position to which this would consign her? Shall we deliberately affix this stigma to her name and make her name a subject for contempt and reproach wherever it is mentioned?

In the next place such men appearing on the floor of Congress as advocates of such a cause would do incalculable injury to the material interests of Oregon They would be powerless to accomplish anything of good Their influence would be of that negative kind which would tell continually against the State It would be a weight a clog, an incubus which would at all times drag Oregon down Col Kelly, if he should undertake to deliver in the Senate such a speech as he delivered before a Portland audience the other night, would not be listened to with respect even by the members of his own party in that body It is probable, indeed, that they would vote to censure him for bringing forward propositions unbecoming a Senator and dishonorable to the country It is certain that he could find no supporters even among his political associates in that body Such being the degree of estimation in which he would be held by members of his own party in the Senate, what would be his standing in that body as a whole, three fourths of whose members are Republicans? His position would be such that Oregon could appreciate it if he could not The State would feel it keenly and from the neglect it would be sure to receive, it would realize the disadvantage of being thus represented at Washington Better have nobody at the National Capital than men whose influence would be a detriment to the State If Mr Slater goes to the House there will still be just one repudiator in that body, for Mungen of Ohio will probably be left at home, after his present term.

Editorial Notes

A large force is now at work on the United States buildings in this city, and before the season closes this large and substantial edifice will have risen to such a height as to present a very imposing appearance Col. Kelly might get a new idea or two by taking a walk in that locality.

The Herald troubles itself so far as to publish a speech delivered in Congress last January by Mr. Dawes, a Republican Now if it will publish Mr Dawes' more recent speech, delivered in New Hampshire, it will do its party a more substantial service by informing it of the splendid financial results of Grant's Administration

The Clerk of Santa Clara county, California, being in doubt whether the names of colored men should be entered on the register as voters, telegraphed to Secretary Fish at Washington asking if the Fifteenth Amendment had been duly ratified and proclaimed He received an affirmative answer, and thereupon the names of colored men were enrolled.

The Democratic paper at Albany should bear in mind that the Fay letter, which it condemns, has such backers as Mr. Slater, Col. Kelly and the Herald These authorities have severally approved its proposition. The Herald has been especially warm in its encomiums, and the Herald is the paper selected by the Albany Convention to speak for the party.

There is a fellow in Congress from Tennessee named Butler who has had something to do with the dirty cadetship traffic. Supposing this culprit to be the renowned Ben Butler of Massachusetts, several enlightened Democratic papers in Oregon are drawing again on that elegant vocabulary of theirs for such phrases as "spoon thief," "the beast," etc. Truly these be intelligent editors.

Col. Kelly has been up in Yamhill assisting to set up a ticket for the Legislature which will be favorable to himself for United States Senator. He has placed those truly great men "Bill" Newby and "Andy" Shuck on the ticket, as he could find nobody else he could implicitly rely on. Of course his ticket will be badly beaten in the election, for Yamhill always goes Republican, but Kelly will have his brief hour of satisfaction in the knowledge that "the ticket" in Yamhill is all his own.

It appears that the bill to grant lands in aid of the Columbia River and Salt Lake railroad has been reported in the Senate by the appropriate Committee This is the same bill which was introduced some time ago by Senator Williams. As the Committee have reported it, we may presume that it will be acted upon ere long People in Oregon who take an interest in these railroad projects may expect a renewal of Democratic opposition to land grants when this bill comes up for consideration.

The opposition press is trying to make a point against Gen Palmer by charging that he once swindled Gen Sheridan by paying him greenbacks They may as well give themselves no uneasiness on this score Gen Palmer once had some business transactions with Gen Sheridan, which were settled entirely to the satisfaction of the latter The most perfect friendship exists between them We have seen letters from Gen Sheridan to Gen Palmer, written within a period of a few weeks past, which contain expressions of the warmest regard Gen Sheridan would even come to Oregon to assist Gen Palmer in the campaign, if his presence here were thought to be necessary No man would do more for another than Sheridan would do for Palmer

Says the Herald "We challenge the Oregonian to show that any Democrat of standing has ever uttered a sentence hostile to Congressional aid to railroads in Oregon Let it produce legitimate proof of such an utterance or cease its repetition of the charges it has made against the Democracy as to this matter" We have published columns of extracts from speeches delivered by Democratic Senators against Congressional aid to railroads in Oregon Is Senator Thurman a Democrat of standing? Is Senator Casserly a Democrat of standing? The whole body of Democratic Senators who spoke and voted against the Portland, Astoria and West Side grant,—are they Democrats of standing? The Democratic record on this subject is well known, and the Herald cannot gloss it over with the disingenuous statement that "some two or three Democratic Senators on one occasion, for whose course the party is not responsible, voted against a land grant for Oregon That paper knows that the whole body of Democratic Senators voted against it, and declared their unalterable determination to fight all land grants in future It knows that the party is pledged by its platform to a policy of opposition to internal improvements made by the General Government That party will do well to try some other theme

EDITOR OREGONIAN

In my article which appeared in your paper of yesterday morning I omitted two or three paragraphs for the sake of brevity which with your permission I will add now to what I then said

In 1850 General Hamilton of this city then Secretary of Oregon Territory, published the first volume of laws by authority of the Territorial government The word Wallamet occurs once in it in the old mission not and is spelled as I have just spelled it In conversation with Judge Deady he informs me that he was a member of the Assembly that sat at Oregon City in the winter of 1850 51, and at the close of the session at the request of General Hamilton remained for some time at Oregon City and superintended the preparation of the manuscript for that volume, and prepared the head and side notes for it Being undecided as to the orthography of the word he consulted Dr McLaughlin, then being in Oregon City, who assured him that it was an Indian word, and that it should be pronounced with the broad a—Wallamet Upon this authority the manuscript was prepared and was published accordingly

The next bound volume of laws published by authority of the Territory was the Code prepared by Messrs Kelly, Boise and Rigdon The Code was passed in the winter of 1853 4 and was published in New York in the summer of 1854, the manuscript being sent from here for that purpose It is spelled Wallamet in that publication Only 500 copies of this work reached Oregon, the other 500 being lost on the Southerner in (probably) December, 1854 The Assembly, then in session ordered 500 copies more printed to include the laws of that session Some one meddled with the copy and then introduced the fancy French spelling of Willamette

Judge Deady, writing for the San Francisco Bulletin about two years ago, says of this name

> The word is of Indian origin and as they had no written language the early settlers of this country caught the pronunciation from them and gave it an English orthography It being often difficult for white people to get the correct pronunciation of Indian words and names, owing to the different training of the organs of speech, it happened of course, that the word was spelled differently by different people In this way in early times the word came to be spelled by the residents of the country who were familiar with the Indian pronunciation, Wahlamet, Wallamut and Wallamet Irving, in his Astoria, spells it Wallamet He got his orthography from Capt Bonneville, and this latter constructed it from the Indian pronunciation At a later period, literary people who knew nothing of Oregon, thought they had discovered in the name a corruption of a French word or proper name brought here and applied to the stream by the French voyageurs So without more ado they commenced to act upon this theory and wrote the name Willamette with the accent on the last syllable, and sometimes making the final e a separate syllable, or Willamette, with the accent on the third syllable This fancy orthography, as is often the case, found its way to the Departments at Washington, and thus it got itself admitted on the maps, charts, etc.

But the scholarships which are sold by the Wallamet University employ the orthography I here affirm to be correct. And it ought not to be forgotten that this University was built up by the early missionaries upon the foundation of an Indian mission school, and that these same Missionaries procured for it a charter designating it as the Wallamet University—not the affected and fanciful French name of Willamette University 'Tis well that such suggestion cannot reach dear old Father Leslie in his grave

So, also the printed catalogues of that University as late, at least, as 1864 or 1865, recognized this orthography

In a number of the Oregon City Enterprise of September 5th, 1868, this orthography is adhered to

In a number of the Herald issued in the same month and the same year, the same orthography is followed—Wallamette.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

Colder was sentenced by the District Court to seven years' imprisonment for the shooting of Northover.

Several men were indicted by the grand jury of Pierce county for the killing of McDonald and Gibson

J L Allison, charged with forging the names of citizens to his bond, was tried and acquitted

Henry Hansen, of Steilacoom, undertook to chastise his former wife, while on a drunken spree, one day last week, and the deputy sheriff confined him in jail, to await the action of the grand jury

Wm. Lewis, recently from Oregon, has charge of the ferry at Carson's place, at the military road crossing There is a telegraph station at same place, Mr James W Wright operator.

The bark Sam ett sailed from Tacoma on Tuesday for San Francisco, loaded with lumber

The Transcript says An Indian sold a raft of logs last week for $1,100

The steamer J B Libby was sold by the U S Deputy Marshal at Seattle, on Tuesday, for $2,300 to Capt H H Hyde, she having been libelled for seamen's wages

According to the Massachusetts State Auditor's report there were only four members of the Legislature of 1869 who were not present every day during the session of 171 days, and one of these four died

The Republicans of Boise county have nominated H A Mattox and C S Kingsley for the Council and I P Lambing, J M Jones, E F Lewis, S K Goldtrap M B Moore, N McCusick and J H Hughes for the Assembly

Ask the principal clos and dress makers throughout the city what machine they prefer; the almost invariable answer will be the GROVER & BAKER. WM CURRIER & Co Agents

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 20, 1870

ODD FELLOWS' ANNIVERSARY THANKSGIVING.—Grand Sire E. D Farnsworth arrived in San Francisco on the evening of March 29th via Pacific Railroad, in good health and spirits. He is accompanied by Prof. H. B Todd, President of the Odd Fellows' Female College, at Gallatin, Tenn. It is hoped that Grand Sire Farnsworth will visit Oregon before his return to the East. The following proclamation was issued from his office on the 15th ult. We copy from the official Journal for the benefit of the Fraternity

Whereas the Anniversary of our well beloved Order is rapidly approaching, and the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of the United States in special recognition of the hand of God, in the preservation and prosperity of the Institution during a long period of years, and amid many perils and dangers, did set apart the said Anniversary as a day of general thanksgiving through out the entire Jurisdiction.

Now, therefore, I, E. D. Farnsworth, M. W. Grand Sire, in virtue of authority in me vested by the Grand Lodge, do hereby fraternally enjoin upon all the Grand Bodies of the several State, District, Territorial or Provincial Jurisdictions, and upon all Subordinate Lodges immediately to the Grand Lodge of the United States, to take proper order for the observance of the general observance of the Order on the 26th day of April, 1870, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer to Almighty God for His fatherly care and protection of that noble institution which we so earnestly love, for the past life of which, we would devoutly render up our thanks, and for whose use and benefit to the children of men in all the future we would humbly implore His continued blessing.

Given at the city of Baltimore this 15th day of March, A. D., 1870, and of our Order the 51st year.

H. D. FARNSWORTH, Grand Sire.

ATTEST: E. BURLY, C. R.

TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.—The Chicago, Rock Island and Missouri River Railroad, which is now completed for business between Omaha and Chicago on the 26th day of January last, is acknowledged to be the best built, best equipped and best managed railroad in the West. Chicago, and the Great Lakes, running passenger trains fully equipped with all the modern improvements for the safety and comfort of its patrons—such as the Miller platform and couplers, with hot air pipes passing under the cars, producing a pleasant, summer temperature in all parts of the car; Miller's patent platform buffers, which prevent all jerks and jolts in the starting and stopping of trains, and which add greatly to the security of passengers when passing from one car to another; patent ventilators, insuring a free and inward current of air, thereby securing perfect ventilation. The introduction of these improvements, combined with the elegantly furnished six-wheel sleeping and saloon passenger cars, Pullman's palace drawing-room, and magnificent dining cars running between Omaha and Chicago without change, make this the favorite line. This road runs from the Missouri river at Ottumwa, and the new iron bridge at Burlington, the finest railroad bridges in the world, to Chicago through the thickly settled, leading passengers in the direction of Lake street, within a few minutes' ride of the business center of the city, with all lines running East from Chicago for this line for the Passenger Depot established at 208 Montgomery street. All communications addressed to E. St. John, Agent C. B. & M. R. R., will receive immediate attention.

[illegible] spittoon.—It is very common in [illegible] to use an ordinary [illegible] for a spittoon, as a receptacle for [illegible] dust, as a spittoon. It is [illegible] incident occurred in this [illegible] which ought to go to [illegible] spittoons should be [illegible] During the day, perhaps or [illegible] Saturday, there is no telling [illegible] that the stump of a [illegible] thrown, or carelessly dropped [illegible] spittoon to which we are referring [illegible] found food for a fire which [illegible] At all events, [illegible] opened on Monday morning, [illegible] and all, had vanished. [illegible] floor where it had stood [illegible] marred the occupants [illegible] about those [illegible] thankful that [illegible] reported. [illegible] for the purpose of dis- [illegible] of saw-dust spittoons.

FIRE ARRANGEMENTS.—About half [illegible] yesterday afternoon, fire was discovered in a building on Front street, [illegible] S. Wilson, and used by him as [illegible] and furniture store room. [illegible] a moment, almost, [illegible] turned out with its usual [illegible] and furniture [illegible] hundred dollars was sustained [illegible] named Nicholas Soy- [illegible] in the building. He was [illegible] a safe place in another quar- [illegible] was suppressed before it spread to [illegible], and thus another conflagration [illegible] We repeat what is so regularly [illegible] Portland Fire Department—[illegible] its most decided superiority [illegible] ally. There is no chance [illegible] scarcely between the companies [illegible] this element, but old Wallamet [illegible] streams yesterday.

[illegible] The young man Samuel [illegible] yesterday before Recorder [illegible] charge of uttering a counterfeit [illegible] and sent to jail for trial at the next term [illegible] Court, in default of $500 bonds. [illegible] for the State, Charles A. [illegible] The specimen of money [illegible] man attempted to pass upon a [illegible] is evidently spurious, that it is no [illegible] to be passed as soon as the trans- [illegible] It was perfectly natural for [illegible] to accommodate" the prisoner with [illegible] upon the simple request, as [illegible] seems. But when the unsuspecting [illegible] for various stuff and remonstrated [illegible], the prisoner was not so ready to [illegible] him pin put off. It is a clear [illegible] of the opinion that Major Berry [illegible] Merrill to ask time for a short time [illegible] his case is over with.

[illegible] Quivey and wife to William Quivey and [illegible] portion of lot 8 in block 189;

[illegible] Bean and wife to W. Brayman and E [illegible] the south west quarter of section 26 [illegible] quarter of section 27 and a fraction [illegible] south west quarter of section 27 in T 1, N [illegible] $500.

[illegible] Starr and wife to H. B. Myer, a parcel [illegible] containing 212 acres; $4,100

ASSIST NATURE MOVING.—Now that all the old [illegible] making resting places have again settled [illegible] their own foundations, and we cannot be annoyed [illegible] falling on any body's toes, we suggest [illegible] that the two-and-a-half-story wooden old houses are to be moved, [illegible] should make a provision that such establish- [illegible] be kept on the move all the time, night or [illegible] day. One reason for this is, that a building block [illegible] up the street is a very great detriment in cases [illegible] of fire. Columbian Engine Company No 3 broke [illegible] on account of a house on wheels be- [illegible] in their street, on occasion of a late fire alarm. [illegible] is generally known that houses under such [illegible] circumstances must be put through to the end of [illegible] destination, rain or shine, hot or cold, day [illegible] night. It will be just as well for the parties en- [illegible] loyed in the work, and much better for the public [illegible].

BUSY MECHANICS.—The Emmet Guard give their [illegible] annual May Festival this year on the 2d proximo. [illegible] Abby & Hegele offered their patrons [illegible] more last evening.

[illegible] W. G. W. Vaughan is soon to erect a large and [illegible] residence on Fourth street, near Columbia [illegible].

[illegible] U. S. District Court will meet this morning [illegible] at 10 o'clock.

[illegible] The U. S. Circuit Court stands adjourned until [illegible] next Tuesday, the 26th inst.

[illegible] Hippetoh and George Horabuckle were [illegible] admitted to citizenship by the U. S District [illegible] yesterday.

[illegible] Dimick, of McMinnville, Yamhill [illegible] was yesterday appointed a Commissioner [illegible] the U. S. Circuit Court for Oregon.

[illegible] Lost, [illegible] set with pearls. Any one [illegible] returning the same to this office will be suitably [illegible].

NEW INVENTION.—A friend, with an inventive turn of mind has been for some time past experimenting upon a mechanical arrangement for keeping up a supply of hot water in the boiler of the steam fire engine. The arrangement was attached to No 2's steamer on Monday last, and, true enough the water in her boiler was kept so warm that steam was raised for work before the hose could be laid on the evening of that day at a trial on first street. As usual, this thing was canvassed among the boys and one of them offered to bet that at the first [illegible] the thing wouldn't work. The offer was taken, and it so happened that yesterday the latch lost, as the apparatus was not in working trim further experiments were being made. The boys won't bet against it many times, however.

RECRANSHIP.—We take by the Pioneer the "Pipe of Peace," issued by the Order of Red Men simultaneously in Philadelphia and San Francisco, that "Past Grand Prophet Howe expects to go to Oregon, under the jurisdiction of the Great Council of the United States, to establish the proposed Tribes which are being formed there under instructions from Bro. Adam Smith Great Junior Sagamore U. S." From the same paper we are informed that one of the Tribes will be formed in Portland another at Jacksonville, and perhaps at other places. Thirty three Tribes have been organized in California.

PLAZA CONCERT.—The following programme is offered to the public by the 23d Infantry Band, for the usual Wednesday afternoon concert, to day at 2 30

1 Allied Army March
2 Crystal Schottische
3 Serenade du Page, from Genevieve, "Beneath my Lady's Window." Offenbach
4 Quadrille from th Opera, Maritana Wallace
5 Introduction and Chorus from Ernani Verdi
6 Ixion Polka
7 Ballad, "I Remember," Arditi
8 Long Branch Gallop

CALIFORNIA WOOL.—A lot of "fall clip" California wool was shipped up the Wallamet yesterday for some one of our domestic mills. An act of the Legislature ought to pass to prevent such traffic. We want no importations of California burs to pester our sheep husbandry. We recollect that a few years ago the greatest care was being taken to clip sheep closely, and burn the clippings after driving them into Oregon from California. If Oregon can't produce wool enough without asking these things of California, we'd best sell out.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.—On Saturday, 30th inst, A. B Richardson will sell at his auction rooms at 10 o clock A M 17 blocks, situated in Arken's Addition to East Portland. This land comprises some very choice locations for residences, is situated in a rapidly improving portion of East Portland, and is decidedly a most desirable property for homestead purposes. Parties who are desirous of making profitable investments in homestead property, should attend this sale.

WELL TURNED.—A team of horses being driven rapidly up First street yesterday, "came within one" of colliding with a horse and dray which was being driven down Morrison street. The only circumstance which prevented an accident was the artistic manner in which the driver of the double team brought his animals about in a circle, heading off, just by a shave, in front of the dray. Both vehicles were within a few inches of the curb stone when they separated.

THOSE TEARS.—Those artificial teeth, handed to us on Saturday, belonged to Dr. J. G Glean, and prove to be a part of property stolen from a show case at the foot of the steps leading to his office. They were found in the vicinity of the Court of Death and the balance of the missing articles may be found, as officers have already spotted the thieves and make an occasional haul on the gang.

THE DALLES LINE.—The imperfect cable at this place, connecting the Dalles and Umatilla telegraph line with this city has been a constant annoyance for some time. It will be replaced by a new one, as soon as one can be had. A battery and fixtures were taken over to East Portland yesterday, where the dispatches will be received and sent out, until the cable is made good.

TO THE MOUNTAINS.—Mr. F. Harbaugh, whose health has been bad for some months past, is having a nice outfit prepared for an excursion to the mountains this summer for his health. His wagon was turned out of the paint shop of Mr Harry Wood yesterday. It is a good vehicle, of home make, and looks as if it would be a very comfortable one to travel in.

VESTRYMEN.—At the meeting of the Vestry of Trinity Church on Monday evening, the following gentlemen were chosen to serve as Vestrymen for the ensuing year: R. B. Wilson, Senior Warden, Sylvester Pennoyer, Junior Warden; M. P Deady, Clerk; Lloyd Brook, Treasurer, C H. Lewis, Dr. R. Glisan, George H Flanders, J. M Breck, John McCraken.

NOT SO BAD.—We are glad to learn that Master Charles Lownsdale's injuries are not so bad as they were at first thought to be. No bones of the face were broken, yet the injury was very severe. He will bear the mark of the club all his days, perhaps. The bat flew from the hands of the batter and struck endwise in the face of the boy.

PAY UP.—Those persons who are still in arrears for their city taxes must not complain if the day of grace fails them, after the repeated notices given by Marshal Saunders. The books will close to-morrow. After then costs will be to pay. The list can be seen at C. W. Parrish's office, near Washington street, on Front.

ODD FELLOW DELEGATES.—At the last meeting of Minerva Lodge No. 19, on Monday evening, the following gentlemen were chosen to represent that Lodge at the next session of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows: F. S. Ostheim, C. V. Wintzingerode and M. Rosenland.

"BEAVERS' TAILS."—Beavers' tails would not be a very profitable article to enter into the manufacture of Oregon curled hair. What Mr Metzger wants is beeve's tails, (oxen and cow's tails) horses' manes and tails, boys' hair, etc. The mistake yesterday was a mistake. This apology is correct.

A RAFT OF LOGS.—The steamer Senator returned to Oswego yesterday morning for the purpose of towing a raft of logs to this city for one of the mills here. They are from the Rinearson camp of loggers just below the Clackamas river.

SALE OF A DISTILLERY.—The attention of brewers and others is called to U. S Marshal Young's advertisement of the sale of the effects of a Distillery. The sale takes place at A B Richardson's Auction Room to morrow.

BRING OUT YOUR CRAFTS.—The fine south wind blowing all day yesterday, under the genial sunshine, was a strong reminder that it is about time to bring out the yachts owned here by members of the Portland Yacht Club.

LITTLE GIRL HURT.—A little daughter of Mr George Shafer, living in East Portland, had one of her arms broken yesterday by a fall from a fence, over which she was climbing as she was going home from school.

BANKRUPTCY.—In the matter of the estate of Randall & Sunderland, bankrupts, before W Lair Hill, Register on the 19th, a final dividend of seven per cent was declared making 82 per cent paid on all debts.

INJURED.—Mr James Clinton, of East Portland, was injured by the machinery at the repair shop of the Oregon and California Railroad on Monday last, but was able to be about yesterday at home.

SUCCESSFUL TRIP.—The steamer Swallow returned to her landing yesterday after a cruise along the lower river for two weeks. She comes well freighted with butter eggs, hides, furs, etc.

MACADAMIZED ROAD CO.—On Saturday last, at the annual election of officers, Messrs L M Starr H C Leonard, and S M Smith were chosen directors for the current year.

SAN FRANCISCO LIKE.—The streets of Portland yesterday reminded us of San Francisco very much, on account of the intolerable dust set afloat by the wind.

The Statesman says the Echo reached Salem on Monday with 50 tons of freight for Harrisburg.

OREGON

Three schooners are loading at Gardiner City with lumber for San Francisco.

The prospects for an abundant crop of fruit this year is very flattering in Eastern Oregon.

The store of Zolinsky & Selig, burned at Yoncalla last week, was insured in the Pacific Insurance Company for $1 000.

The Columbia river is gradually rising. At present it is fifteen feet above low water mark. Everybody predicts a high water this summer.

A man named Evans who is charged with having committed larceny in Lane county was arrested at Roseburg by Deputy Sheriff Kenyon on the 9th inst.

A large amount of freight is now coming up the river. The O. S. N. Company have drawn the Ivanhoe and put on the Belmont in her place on the upper river.

The docket of the Circuit Court for Lane county is smaller the present term than at any term for years. The number of divorce cases has fallen off from thirteen cases last term to two this.

The bridge across Canyon Creek on the over land stage road east of Boise City, broke down on the 7th inst, letting the horses, stage and passengers into the stream. Nobody was hurt.

The toll road proprietors in Eastern Oregon on the road to Idaho, have made a very liberal reduction in tolls in order to correspond with the recent reductions on the Columbia river steamers.

The Mountaineer says that C M Lockwood and John Hailey have entered into a partnership in the Pioneer Stage Line, running between the Dalles and Kelton, on the Union Pacific Rail road.

From the Herald we learn that the man Evans, arrested in Roseburg, was taken before Justice Holland in Eugene city and having waived a preliminary examination was committed to jail in default of $500 bonds.

On the 5th of last March, an act of Congress was passed establishing a post road between Portland and Netart Bay in the State of Oregon and the inquiries necessary for the establishment of a mail route thereon.

S J Wheelock and Chas Starr laid a plot to rob an old gentleman near Oakland a few days ago, but a third party who had promised to aid in the crime divulged the plan, and Starr and Wheelock had to leave the county.

The Roseburg Ensign says: The Coos Bay Wagon Road Company proposes to commence work on their road on the 15th inst. The Directors have arrived at the conclusion that work can be prosecuted cheaper and better by their agent than by contractors, and Mr Wm Weekly has been appointed to superintend the work.

The bids for furnishing articles for the Indian Department were opened at Salem last week in the presence of disinterested persons, and the contracts awarded as follows: Class 1, wagon timber, etc., K J Northrup & Co., classes 2, 3, and 4, wagon irons, hardware and agricultural implements, Henry Failing, class 5, paints, oils, glass, etc., Hawley, Dodd & Co., all merchants of Portland.

The Democrats of Yamhill county have nominated the following county ticket: For State Senator, W T Newby; Representatives, Andy Shuck and Wm M Townsend; County Judge, Wm M Ramsey; County Clerk, Thomas B Jackson; Sheriff, Joseph M Baxter; Treasurer, James T Hembree; Assessor, Thomas Griffin; Surveyor, Isaac Donovan; School Superintendent, J. H Case.

PORTLAND, Wednesday, April 20, 1870.

GENTLEMEN: In answer to your request which appeared in yesterday's issue, to preach again the discourse delivered at Mount Zion schoolhouse on "Light and Darkness," or, "If a man die, shall he live again?"—I accept your invitation and will deliver the same in any hall in Portland you may please select.

JAS R. WHITE.

Ho! ye young men who revel in fashion and wear "store clothes," ye prudent men who buy goods to get the worth of your cash, ye old men who buy goods to last the remainder of your lives, or any other man or boy who wants to buy the cheapest and best clothing, go to Kohn & Fichel, who have just opened the largest stock of Gents' Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the city. They have all the late styles of spring goods and propose to sell at rates that will please everybody.

Occupational Ailments.

Fresh pure air is a vitalizing elixir. Whoever is debarred by circumstances from unrestricted access to this invigorant—but powerful stimulant needs a medicinal invigorant of some kind. The great object should be to choose the best. Popularity is a pretty good guarantee of merit in this enlightening and intelligent age and tried by this criterion Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands first among the invigorating and regulating medicines of the present day. To the wants of persons engaged in indoor employments especially is recorded the fact that where even with the best possible ventilation the atmosphere is always in some degree polluted this salutary vegetable tonic is peculiarly adapted. The nature of the ingredients is in no part by its control to favorables into pure diffusive stimulant the tired breather or sedentary bargeman—with its fluid extracts of carminatives, roots and barks and herbs. The pharmaceutical combination of virtues that are theirs. The patient only asks the control or lurk or plant is present in each. And the fact combines the three properties of a tonic, an alterative and an aperient. All those elements are blended in the Bitters now are these the sum. Its medicinal in common latitude. It is also a blood deputent and an antispasmodic.

The baleful effect which air that has been partially exhausted of its vivifying principle breathing produces on the vital organs of the system and when it is devitalized atmosphere is superinduced by a full and of every kind becomes deleterious and depressing in the extreme. To enable the system to bear up even for a few hours each day against the debilitating influence of a vitiated atmosphere, a wholesome tonic and alterative is urgently required. This grand desideratum is supplied in Hostetter's Bitters which as a strength sustainer, health protecting agent has no rival either among official or advertised medicines.

Use KANE'S IMPERIAL CONDENSED SOAP. It washes without rubbing. For sale by Allen & Lewis, Corbitt & McCleay, R G Smeath and all retailers.

TO GAS CONSUMERS:

THE UNDERSIGNED PROPRIETOR OF THE LEFFINGWELL GAS SAVING GOVERNOR for the State of Oregon is now prepared to furnish Gas Consumers with this valuable machine, whereby a saving of fifteen to thirty per cent. may be effected and a steady light secured.

The Machine can be seen at the Occidental Hotel where all orders will be attended to.

I call attention to the following Testimonials:

J. J. MILLER.

COSMOPOLITAN SALOON,
PORTLAND OREGON March 5 1870.

MR. J. J. MILLER—Sir: The Leffingwell Gas Saving Governor that you attached to our meter four weeks ago, has proved highly satisfactory. It having made a saving at at least twenty five per cent in that time. Fully believing it to be what you represent, we cheerfully recommend it to Gas Consumers.

GREENE & KNOTT.

ORO FINE THEATRE,
PORTLAND March 4, 1870.

We hereby testify that we have for the past four weeks used the "Leffingwell Saving Gas Governor," and that it worked exceedingly well, having saved at least 25 per cent in our weekly bills. We can cheerfully recommend it to all fully believing it to possess the merits it claims.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. Dec 15 1869.

A. PARSONS & CO.—Gentlemen: Having used four of your Gas saving Governors for several months now, I cheerfully endorse their saving qualities. I consider the money paid for your Governors the best investment I ever made. Yours truly,

H E UHRLANDT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 15 1869.

A. PARSONS & CO.—Gentlemen: The Leffingwell Gas Governor which we have had in use in our store at No 126 Kearney street for the last five weeks, is working well and we consider it a durable and valuable machine, nothing that every gas consumer that studies his own interest should be without. It has made a satisfactory saving of fifteen per cent on the same consumption of gas the former gives us no steady light.

ACKERMAN BROS.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17 1869.

Messrs. A. Parsons & Co.—Gentlemen: The Gas Saving Governor you applied to the meter of our restaurant No. 16 Montgomery street opposite Occidental Hotel has proved very satisfactory both in economy and giving us a steady light. Our bills represent a saving of about twenty five per cent and we take pleasure in recommending them to all who have large gas bills to pay. Governor can be seen in use at the restaurant.

BOYLE & CUNNINGHAM.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 25 1869.

Messrs. A. Parsons & Co.—The Gas Governor which you applied to my meter has saved me at least 20 per cent and is highly satisfactory and I cheerfully recommend it to all consuming gas.

The Daily Oregonian

DNESDAY MORNING APRIL 20, 1870

Mr Grover in 1859

From the Ore H ald

he OREGONIAN yesterday had an article charg against Mr Grover that in 1859 he refused support Hon Lansing Stout for Congress h the record and the recollection of the people nly refute the charge In fact there s nds at all whatever for the asserti n Mr ver did vote for Mr Stout in 1859 and used his influence to elect him to the place he ght.

This is a matter for Democrats to settle ong themselves, and is not of much im tance at this time except for the light it s upon Mr Grover s general character this view, however it is worth some at ntion Mr. Grover did, indeed, vote for Stout, but he voted for him simply to ep his political record clear, after having retly conspired with Messrs Bush, Nes th, and others to defeat him These gen men, leading characters of the dethroned mocratic dynasty that had controlled Ore- n for ten years, wanted Mr Stout defeated a rebuke to Gen. Lane They charged at Mr. Stout had been nominated by fraud rough the machinations of Lane's tools, d sedulously propagated the idea that Dem- rats were under no obligation to support m.

To ex- plain the spirit by which Mr. Grover as actuated at that time it is only necessary turn to the files of the Oregon Statesman r Bush was Mr. Grover's political master, d his thinking and planning for him, and, y playing on his self-interest, could manage m as he chose. The Statesman, therefore, as not more a reflection of Mr Bush's sen- ments than of those of Mr. Grover. So on as Mr. Stout was nominated the States- an came out with a long article giving the side history of the Convention, and ttempting to show that the nomination of Mr. Stout was the result of shameless bar- ains and concerted frauds. Every part of he proceedings, as the Statesman showed, was arranged in a secret caucus to which the riends of Mr. Grover were not admitted. The plan of permanent organization, order of business, appointment of committee on redentials, construction of platform, etc., etc., were all fixed up in this caucus. The ork—nothing thus arranged was gone through without material variation, and Mr. Stout was nominated by forty votes against thirty- three for Grover. The Statesman said that "the defeat of Mr. Grover would strike the country with surprise, not unmixed with re- gret and indignation;" and that "regardless alike of the first and dearest interests of the State, and the known wishes of a large majority of the Democratic party, a minority of the State Convention had procured the sacrifice of Mr. Grover" These mutterings of discontent were followed the succeeding week by an elaborate editorial on "Obliga- tions to Party," in which it was argued at great length that "whenever a party suffers itself, under the manipulations of unscrupulous or interested demagogues, to be led astray from its principles, the partisan is absolved from all further allegiance to the organiza- tion." The direct meaning of this was that Democrats were not bound to support Mr. Stout, since he owed his nomination to "un- scrupulous and interested demagogues." Every issue of the paper until the election was wholly devoted to the propagation of discontent, "That this was done with the privity of Mr. Grover, and that his senti- ments on the subject were identical with those attributed in the Statesman, does not admit a doubt. Mr. Grover did nothing at all in behalf of Mr. Stout, and put forth no exertion whatever to elect him. He did vote for him, it is true; and so did Mr. Bush, not- withstanding they both had done so much by public word to defeat him. On the 7th June, but a few days before the election, the States- man published an article under the caption, "Have we a Democratic Party Among Us?" from which the following is an extract.

> We did have a Democratic party and a Demo- cratic organization, but where is it, or who com- pose it now? If it exists, the soul and spirit of it is an organized band of brainless personal ad- herents, frankly drawn from the opposition ranks, and as ruthlessly determined as ever to defeat and drive from public confidence every man whose record marks him as a faithful, consistent Demo- crat. If it exists it presents the strange anom- aly of an organized foe within, engaged in the work of destroying the Democratic party. If it exists a Democratic record is worth nothing to it.

When the election returns began to come in, the Statesman was jubilant. It said

> The returns show that the dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks extended all over the State," and pointed with great glee to the 300 majority for Mr. Logan in Marion.

We have gone over this record simply be- cause it so well illustrates the character of Mr. Grover. Every one familiar with Oregon politics knows that his conduct precisely ac- corded with that of Mr. Bush, who has left his record in the Statesman. It appears, then, that Mr. Grover, after he was defeated for the nomination, fell into a fit of wrathful sulks; that he and his bankers deemed them- selves rightfully entitled to control the party, and that when the sceptre was wrested from them by an "inferior hand" they considered themselves absolved from party obligations, that they did what they could to create dis- contentment and dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks, and after diverting hundreds, per- haps thousands, of votes from Mr Stout, they then, on the poor plea of preserving their record, came unmanly enough to sacri- fice their independence by turning round and voting for him Their influence was all against Mr. Stout, that was for revenge Their votes were thrown for him, that was for their own political advantage in the fu ture. It was Mr. Grover's hope at once to break down Mr. Stout and prepare for his own re-ascension to political preferment and honor. This history is valuable now as serv- ing to show the character of the man, as it illustrating his selfishness, as uncovering his clandestinations, and giving an insight into the principles by which all his actions are regulated and guided Mr. Grover's greatest care is Number One. It can almost be said of him, as Cicero said of a person against whom one of his philippics was directed, "He is a lover of himself, without a rival"

The Standing of Oregon at the National Capital

It would be far better for Oregon to have no representation in Congress than to be represented there by men who are pledged to that "pestilential abortion, (we borrow a phrase from a Democratic paper), the Albany platform. Better for Oregon that no one should appear in her name at the National Capital than that those should appear for her there who would advocate such propositions as the Democratic party of this State is pledged to in this campaign

In the first place such men, appearing on the floor of Congress as advocates of such a cause, would destroy the reputation of Ore- gon and bring the State into deep and lasting disgrace Oregon would at once gain a sin gular and unenviable notoriety The advo cacy of repudiation by a single member of the House Mungen of Ohio caused an out burst of indignation from both parties in Congress and from every quarter in the Union Democrats hastened to disavow his utterances and to denounce them as infamous Shall such sentiments be proclaimed also in the Senate and by Senators from Oregon? Are we ready to accept for our State the dis honored position to which this would consign her? Shall we deliberately affix this stigma to her name and make her name a subject for contempt and reproach wherever it is men tioned?

In the next place such men, appearing on the floor of Congress as advocates of such a cause would do incalculable injury to the material interests of Oregon They would be powerless to accomplish anything of good Their influence would be of that negative kind which would tell continually against the State It would be a weight a clog, an in- cubus, which would at all times drag Oregon down Col Kelly, if he should undertake to deliver in the Senate such a speech as he de- livered before a Portland audience the other night, would not be listened to with respect even by the members of his own party in that body It is probable, indeed, that they would vote to censure him for bringing for- ward propositions unbecoming a Senator and dishonorable to the country. It is certain that he could find no supporters even among his political associates in that body Such being the degree of estimation in which he would be held by members of his own party in the Senate, what would be his standing in that body as a whole, three-fourths of whose members are Republicans? His position would be such that Oregon could appreciate it if he could not The State would feel it keenly, and from the neglect it would be sure to receive, it would realize the disadvantage of being thus represented at Washington Better have nobody at the National Capital than men whose influence would be a detriment to the State. If Mr Slater goes to the House there will still be just one repudiator in that body, for Mungen of Ohio will probably be left at home, after his present term.

Editorial Notes.

A large force is now at work on the United States buildings in this city, and before the season closes this large and substantial edi- fice will have risen to such a height as to pre- sent a very imposing appearance. Col. Kelly might get a new idea or two by taking a walk in that locality.

The Herald troubles itself so far as to pub- lish a speech delivered in Congress last Janu- ary by Mr. Dawes, a Republican Now if it will publish Mr Dawes' more recent speech, delivered in New Hampshire, it will do its party a more substantial service by informing it of the splendid financial results of Grant's Administration

The Clerk of Santa Clara county, Californ ia, being in doubt whether the names of colored men should be entered on the register as voters, telegraphed to Secretary Fish at Washington asking if the Fifteenth Amend- ment had been duly ratified and proclaimed. He received an affirmative answer, and there- upon the names of colored men were en- rolled.

The Democratic paper at Albany should bear in mind that the Fay letter, which it condemns, has such backers as Mr. Slater, Col. Kelly and the Herald These author- ities have severally approved its proposition The Herald has been especially warm in its encomiums, and the Herald is the paper se- lected by the Albany Convention to speak for the party

There is a fellow in Congress from Tennes- see named Butler who has had something to do with the dirty cadetship traffic Sup- posing this culprit to be the renowned Ben. Butler of Massachusetts, several enlightened Democratic papers in Oregon are drawing again on that elegant vocabulary of theirs for such phrases as "spoon thief," "the beast," etc. Truly these be intelligent editors.

Col. Kelly has been up in Yamhill assist- ing to set up a ticket for the Legislature which will be favorable to himself for United States Senator. He has placed those truly great men "Bill" Newby and "Andy" Shuck on the ticket, as he could find nobody else he could implicitly rely on. Of course his ticket will be badly beaten in the election, for Yamhill always goes Republican, but Kelly will have his brief hour of satisfaction in the knowledge that "the ticket" in Yamhill is all his own.

It appears that the bill to grant lands in aid of the Columbia River and Salt Lake rail- road has been reported in the Senate by the appropriate Committee This is the same bill which was introduced some time ago by Senator Williams As the Committee have reported it, we may presume that it will be acted upon ere long People in Oregon who take an interest in these railroad projects may expect a renewal of Democratic opposi- tion to land grants, when this bill comes up for consideration.

The opposition press is trying to make a point against Gen Palmer by charging that he once swindled Gen. Sheridan by paying him greenbacks They may as well give themselves no uneasiness on this score Gen Palmer once had some business transactions with Gen Sheridan, which were settled en- tirely to the satisfaction of the latter The most perfect friendship exists between them We have seen letters from Gen Sheridan to Gen Palmer, written within a period of a few weeks past, which contain expressions of the warmest regard Gen Sheridan would even come to Oregon to assist Gen Palmer in the campaign, if his presence here were thought to be necessary No man would do more for another than Sheridan would do for Palmer

Says the Herald "We challenge the ORE GONIAN to show that any Democrat of stand ing has ever uttered a sentence hostile to Congressional aid to railroads in Oregon Let it produce legitimate proof of such an utter ance, or cease its repetition of the charge it has made against the Democracy as to this matter" We have published columns of ex tracts from speeches delivered by Democratic Senators against Congressional aid to rail roads in Oregon Is Senator Thurman a Democrat of standing? Is Senator Casserly a Democrat of standing? The whole body of Democratic Senators who spoke and voted against the Portland, Astoria and West Side grant,—are they Democrats of standing? The Democratic record on this subject is well known, and the Herald cannot gloss it over with the disingenuous statement that 'some two or three Democratic Senators on one oc- casion, for whose course the party is not re- sponsible, voted against a land grant for Ore- gon That paper knows that the whole body of Democratic Senators voted against it, and declared their unalterable determination to fight all land grants in future It knows that the party of its party has always been one of opposition to internal improvements and it is the General Government That pa per will do well to try some other theme

Our River and its Name

PORTLAND, April 19 1870

EDITOR ORE GONIAN

In my article which appeared in your paper of yesterday morning I omitted two or three para graphs for the sake of brevity which with your permission I will add now to what I the said

In 1850 General Hamilton of this city then Secretary of Oregon Territory, published the first volume of laws by authority of the Territorial government The word Wallamet occurs once in it in the dedication and is spelled as I have just spelled it In conversation with Judge Deady he informs me that he was a member of the Assembly that sat at Oregon City in the win ter of 1850 51 and at the close of the session, at there quest of General Hamilton, remained for some time at Oregon City and superintended the pre paration of the manuscript for that volume, and prepared the head and side notes for it Being undecided as to the orthography of the word he consulted Dr McLaughlin, then being in Oregon City, who assured him that it was an Indian word, and that it should be pronounced with the broad a—Wallamet Upon this authority the manuscript was prepared and was published ac cordingly

The next bound volume of laws published by authority of the Territory was the Code prepared by Messrs Kelly, Boise and Rigdon The Code was passed in the winter of 1853 4, and was pub lished in New York in the summer of 1854, the manuscript being sent from here for that purpose It is spelled Wallamet in that publication Only 500 copies of this work reached Oregon the other 500 being lost on the Southerner in (probably) December, 1854 The Assembly then in sessi n, ordered 500 copies more printed to include the laws of that session Some one meddled with the copy and then introduced the fancy French spell ing of Willamette

Judge Deady, writing for the San Francisco Bulletin about two years ago, says of this name "The word is of Indian origin and as they had no written language the early settlers of this country caught the pronunciation from them and gave it an English orthography It being often difficult for white people to get the correct pro nunciation of Indian words and names, owing to the different training of the organs of speech, it happened of course, that the word was spelled differently by different people In this way in early times the word came to be spelled by the residents of the country who were familiar with the Indian pronunciation, Wahlamet, Wallamut and Wallamet Irving, in his Astoria, spells it Wallamet He got his orthography from Capt Bonneville, and this latter constructed it from the Indian pronunciation At a later period, literary people who knew nothing of Oregon, thought they had discovered in the name a cor ruption of a French word or proper name brought here and applied to the stream by the French voyageurs. So without more ado they commenced to act upon this theory and wrote the name Wil lamette, with the accent on the last syllable, and sometimes making the final e a separate syllable, or Willamette, with the accent on the third syll able This fancy orthography, as is often the case, found its way to the Departments at Wash ington, and thus it got itself admitted on the maps, charts, etc

But the scholarships which are sold by the Wallamet University employ the orthography I have a Term to be correct And it ought not to be forgotten that this University was built up by the early missionaries, upon the foundation of an in dian mission school, and that these same Mission aries procured for it a charter, designating it as the Wallamet University—not the affected and fanciful French name of Willamette University 'Tis well that such suggestion cannot reach dear old Father Leslie in his grave

So, also the printed catalogues of that Univer sity at last, at least, as 1864 or 1865, recognised this orthography

In a number of the Oregon City Enterprise of September 5th, 1868, this orthography is adher ed to.

In a number of the Herald issued in the same month and the same year, the same orthography is followed—Wallamette.

ODD FELLOWS ANNIVERSARY THANKSGIVING.—Grand Sire E. D. Farnsworth arrived in San Francisco on the evening of March 25th, and is now stationed, in good health and spirits. He is accompanied by Prof. H. B. Todd, President of the Odd Fellows' Female College at Gallatin, Tenn. It is hoped that Grand Sire Farnsworth will visit Oregon before his return to the East. The following proclamation was issued from this office on the 15th ult. We copy from the official order:

Whereas, The Anniversary of our well beloved Order is rapidly approaching, and the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of the United States in grateful recognition of the hand of God, in the preservation and prosperity of the Institution during a long period of years, and amid many trials and dangers, did set apart the said Anniversary as a day of general thanksgiving through out the entire Jurisdiction

Now, therefore, I, E. D. Farnsworth, M. W. Grand Sire, in virtue of authority in me vested by the Grand Lodge, do hereby fraternally enjoin upon all the Grand Bodies of the several State, District, Territorial or Provincial Jurisdictions and upon all Lodges Subordinate immediately to the Grand Lodge of the United States, to take proper order for the general observance of the fifty-first day of April, 1870, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer to Almighty God for His unmistakable care and protection of that no less institution which we so earnestly love, for the prosperous past life of which, we would declare forth our thanks, and for whose use among the children of men in all the future under His guidance, we would humbly implore a continued blessing.

Done at the city of Baltimore this 15th day of March, A. D., 1870, and of our Order the 51st.

E. D. FARNSWORTH, Grand Sire.

ATTEST: J. L. RIDGELY, C. S.

TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.—The Chicago, Burlington and Missouri River Railroad, which is expected for business between Omaha and Chicago on the 15th day of January last, is acknowledged to be the best built, best equipped and best managed railroad line west of Chicago, and the only road running passenger trains fully equipped with all the modern improvements for the comfort and safety of its patrons—such as the Miller platform and safety coupler, with hot air pipes passing under the seats, producing a pleasant, summer heat in all parts of the car; Miller's patent platforms and platform, which prevent all jerks and jars in the starting and stopping of trains, and the only perfectly safe means of passengers when passing from one car to another; patent ventilators, insuring a constant inward and outward current of air, thus securing perfect ventilation. The introduction of many scientific improvements, combining taste and elegantly furnished six wheel reclining and saloon passenger coaches, and Pullman's palace drawing-room, sleeping and parlor hotel dining cars running between Omaha and Chicago without change, make the most desirable line. This road runs from Burlington, the finest portion of Iowa, crossing the Mississippi river at Ottumwa, and the Missouri river on the new iron bridge at Burlington, connecting with all lines of the finest railroad bridges in the world, and thence to Chicago through the beautiful and flourishing passengers in the Union Depot, foot of Lake street, within two blocks of the principal hotels, and making close connections with all lines running East and West. The Agency for this line for the Pacific Coast has been established at 208 Montgomery street, San Francisco. All communications should be addressed to Jno. E. Lewis, Agent C. B. & M. R. R. Co., Omaha, Neb., and will receive immediate attention.

SPITTOONS.—It is very common in this city for people to use an ordinary dry goods box, filled with saw dust, as a spittoon. It is very unsightly, and an incident occurred in this office night last, which ought to go to show that such spittoons should be [illegible]. During the day, perhaps or [illegible] Saturday; there is no telling, but it is supposed that the stump of a cigar was thrown, or carelessly dropped into the said spittoon to which we are referring, and found food for a fire which [illegible] At all events, [illegible] was opened on Monday morning, [illegible] dust, and all, had vanished, [illegible] in the floor where it had stood [illegible] which warned the occupants [illegible] of such articles about those [illegible] are very thankful that [illegible] other than is here reported. [illegible] incident for the purpose of dis[illegible] of saw dust spittoons.

FIRE ON ALDER STREET.—About half [illegible] yesterday afternoon, fire was discovered in the roof of a building on Front street, [illegible] W. Wilcox, and used by him as [illegible] and furniture store room. [illegible] within a moment, almost, [illegible] turned out with its usual [illegible] to the premises and furniture [illegible] a hundred dollars was sustained. [illegible] the lawful owned Nicholas Suydam, [illegible] in the building. "He was [illegible] with a safe place in another quarter [illegible] was suppressed before it spread to [illegible] buildings, and thus another conflagration was [illegible]. We repeat what is so regularly [illegible] in the Portland Fire Department—[illegible] have a most decided superiority [illegible] generally. There is no chance [illegible] jealously between the companies [illegible] department, but old Wallamet[illegible] streams yesterday.

[illegible]—The young man Samuel [illegible] was brought before Recorder [illegible] yesterday before Recorder [illegible] in the charge of uttering a counterfeit [illegible] was sent to jail for trial at the next term [illegible] Court, in default of $500 bonds [illegible] appeared for the State, Charles A. [illegible] for the prisoner. The specimen of money [illegible] with, it was attempted to pass upon a [illegible] is manifestly spurious, that it is no [illegible] to look into its books as soon as the transaction was made. It was perfectly natural for [illegible] to "accommodate" the prisoner with [illegible] upon the simple request, as [illegible] very scarce. But when the unsuspecting [illegible] the spurious stuff and remonstrated [illegible] it, the prisoner was not so ready to [illegible] him, but put off. It is a clear [illegible] we are of the opinion that Major Berry [illegible] will do to take care of for a short time [illegible] before his case is over with

George V. James and wife to Lawrence Dardis, lot 5, block 4, in block 159, $600.

Bridget Quivey and wife to William Quivey and [illegible] portion of lot 8 in block 189.

D. N. Bean and wife to W. Breyman and E. Kennedy, the south-west quarter of section 26 and the south-west quarter of section 27 and a fraction in the south west quarter of section 27 in T. 1, N. R. 1 W., $300.

Caroline Orsuh to R. Glisan, blocks 57 and 58 in Couch's Addition, $1.

R. C. Raymond to William Turnbull, block 11 in Holliday's Addition to East Portland, 1 000.

R. R. Starr and wife to H. B. Myer, a parcel of land containing 212 acres, $3,100.

SHORT HORN MOVERS.—Now that all the old horses seeking resting places have again settled down in their own grounds," and we cannot be accused of driving on any body's toes, we suggest that in future, when old horses are to be moved from the Council make a provision that such establishments be kept on the move all the time, night or day. One reason for this is, that a building block was up the street has very great detriment in cases of fire. Columbian Engine Company No. 3 broke their engine on account of a house on wheels being in First street, on occasion of a late fire alarm. It is generally known that houses under such circumstances must be put through to the end of their destination, rain or shine, but or cold day or night, it will be just as well for the parties engaged in the work, and much better for the public.

BERRY MEETING.—The Emmet Guard give their annual May Festival this year on the 2d proximo. Ainsley & Hegele offered their patrons ice cream last evening.

MR. G. W. Vaughn is soon to erect a large and elegant residence on Fourth street, near Columbia.

THE U. S. District Court will meet this morning at nine o'clock.

THE U. S. Circuit Court stands adjourned until next Monday, the 25th inst.

Antoine Happrich and George Hornbuckle were admitted to ambassadorship by the U. S. District Court yesterday.

WILLIAM Dawson, of McMinnville, Yamhill county, was yesterday appointed a Commissioner of the U. S. Circuit Court for Oregon.

LOST.—A gold locket set with pearls. Any one returning the same to this office will be suitably rewarded.

NEW INVENTION.—A friend, with an inventive turn of mind has been for some time past experimenting upon a mechanical arrangement for keeping up a supply of hot water in the boiler of the steam fire engine. The arrangement was attached to No. 2's steamer on Monday last and true enough the water in her boiler was kept so warm that steam was raised for work before the hose could be laid on the evening of that day at a trial on First street. As usual this thing was canvassed among the boys, and one of them offered to bet that at the first fire nothing wouldn't work. The offer was taken and it so happened that yesterday the taker lost as the apparatus was not in working trim further experiments were being made. The boys won't bet against it many times, however.

RATTLESNAKE.—Word comes by the Carrier of the Pipe of Peace, issued by the Order of Red Men simultaneously in Philadelphia and San Francisco, that "Past Grand Prophet Howe expects to go to Oregon, under the jurisdiction of the Great Council of the United States to establish the proposed Tribes which are being formed there under instructions from Bro. Adam Smith, Great Junior Sagamore U. S. From the same paper we are informed that one of the Tribes will be formed in Portland another at Jacksonville, and perhaps at other places. Thirty three Tribes have been organized in California.

PLAZA CONCERT.—The following programme is offered to the public by the 23d Infantry Band, for the usual Wednesday afternoon concert, to-day at 2 30:

1. Allied Army March
2. Crystal Schottische
3. Serenade du Page, from Genevieve, "Beneath my Lady's Window." Offenbach
4. Quadrille from the Opera, Maritana. Wallace
5. Introduction and Chorus from Ernani. Verdi
6. Ixion Polka
7. Ballad "I Remember," Arneken
8. Long Branch Gallop

CALIFORNIA WOOL.—A lot of 'fall clip' California wool was shipped up the Wallamet yesterday for some one of our domestic mills. An act of the Legislature ought to pass to prevent such traffic. We want no importations of California burs to pester our sheep husbandry. We recollect that a few years ago the greatest care was being taken to clip sheep closely, and burn the clippings after driving them into Oregon from California. If Oregon can't produce wool enough without asking those things of California, we'd best sell out.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.—On Saturday, 30th inst., A. B. Richardson will sell at his auction rooms at 10 o'clock A. M. 17 blocks situated in Aiken's Addition to East Portland. This land comprises some very choice locations for residences, is situated in a rapidly improving portion of East Portland, and is decidedly in most desirable property for homestead purposes. Parties who are desirous of making profitable investments in homestead property, should attend this sale.

WELL TURNED.—A team of horses being driven rapidly up First street yesterday, "came within one" of colliding with a horse and dray which was being driven down Morrison street. The only circumstance which prevented an accident was the artistic manner in which the driver of the double team brought his animals about in a circle, heading off, just by a shave, in front of the dray. Both vehicles were within a few inches of the curb stone when they separated.

THOSE TEETH.—Those artificial teeth, handed to us on Saturday, belonged to Dr. J. G. Glisen, and prove to be a part of property stolen from a show case at the foot of the steps leading to his office. They were found in the vicinity of the Court of Death and the balance of the missing articles may be found, as officers have already spotted the thieves and make an occasional haul on the gang.

THE DALLES LINE.—The imperfect cable at this place, connecting the Dalles and Umatilla telegraph line with this city has been a constant annoyance for some time. It will be replaced by a new one, as soon as one can be had. A battery and fixtures were taken over to East Portland yesterday, where the dispatches will be received and sent out, until the cable is made good.

TO THE MOUNTAINS.—Mr. F. Harbaugh, whose health has been bad for some months past, is having a nice outfit prepared for an excursion to the mountains this summer for his health. His wagon was turned out of the paint shop of Mr. Harry Wood yesterday. It is a good vehicle, of home make, and looks as if it would be a very comfortable one to travel in.

VESTRYMEN.—At the meeting of the Vestry of Trinity Church on Monday evening, the following gentlemen were chosen to serve as Vestrymen for the ensuing year: R. B. Wilson, Senior Warden, Sylvester Pennoyer, Junior Warden, M. P. Deady, Clerk, Lloyd Brook, Treasurer, C. H. Lewis, Dr. R. Gilman, George H. Flanders, J. M. Brock, John McCraken.

NOT SO BAD.—We are glad to learn that Master Charles Lownsdale's injuries are not so bad as they were at first thought to be. No bones of the face were broken, yet the injury was very severe. He will bear the mark of the club all his days, perhaps. The bat flew from the hands of the batter and struck endwise in the face of the boy.

PAY UP.—Those persons who are still in arrear ages on their city taxes must not complain if the day of grace fails them, after the repeated notices given by Marshal Saunders. The books will close to-morrow. After then costs will be to pay. The list can be seen at C. W. Parrish's office, near Washington street, on Front.

ODD FELLOW DELEGATES.—At the last meeting of Minerva Lodge No. 19, on Monday evening, the following gentlemen were chosen to represent that Lodge at the next session of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows: F. S. Ostheim, C. V. Winkingerode and M. Kuehland.

"BEAVERS' TAILS."—Beavers' tails would not be a very profitable article to enter into the manufacture of Oregon curled hair. What Mr. Metzger wants is horse's tails, (oxen and cow's tails) horses' manes and tails, boys' hair, etc. The mistake yesterday was a mistake. This apology is correct.

A RAFT OF LOGS.—The steamer Scantor returned to Oswego yesterday morning for the purpose of towing a raft of logs to this city for one of the mills here. They are from the Rinearson camp of loggers just below the Clackamas river.

SALE OF A DISTILLERY.—The attention of brewers and others is called to U. S. Marshal Young's advertisement of the sale of the effects of a Distillery. The sale takes place at A. B. Richardson's Auction Rooms to-morrow.

BRING UP YOUR CRAFTS.—The fine south wind blowing all day yesterday, under the genial sunshine was a strong reminder that it is about time to bring out the yachts owned here by members of the Portland Yacht Club.

LITTLE GIRL HURT.—A little daughter of Mr. George Shafer, living in East Portland, had one of her arms broken yesterday, by a fall from a fence, over which she was climbing as she was going home from school.

BANKRUPTCY.—In the matter of the estate of Randall & Sanderland bankrupts before W. Lair Hill, Register, on the 19th a final dividend of seven per cent was declared making 62 per cent paid on all debts.

INJURED.—Mr. James Clinton, of East Portland, was injured by the machinery at the repair shop of the Oregon and California Railroad on Monday last but was able to be about yesterday at home.

SUCCESSFUL TRIP.—The steamer Swift returned to her landing yesterday after a cruise along the lower river for two weeks. She comes well freighted with butter, eggs, hides, furs, etc.

MACADAMIZED ROAD CO.—On Saturday last, at the annual election of officers, Messrs. I. M. Starr, R. C. Leonard and S. M. Smith were chosen directors for the current year.

SAN FRANCISCO LIST.—The streets of Portland yesterday reminded us of San Francisco very much on account of the intolerable dust set afloat by the wind.

The Statesman says the Echo reached Salem on Monday with 50 tons of freight for Harrisburg.

OREGON

Three schooners are loading at Gardiner City with lumber for San Francisco.

The prospects for an abundant crop of fruit this year is very flattering in Eastern Oregon.

The store of Johnsky & Selig burned at Wallula last week was insured in the Pacific Insurance Company for $1 000.

The Canal in front of is gradually rising. At present it is fifteen feet above the low water mark. Every year it is higher than the summer.

A man named [illegible] who was in charge of cattle having contracted for hay in Lane county was arrested at Roseburg by Deputy Sheriff [illegible] on the 7th inst.

A large amount of freight is now coming up the river. The O. S. N. Company have drawn off the Jennie at Lyons on the Dalles on her plane on the upper river.

The docket of the Circuit Court for Lane county is smaller the present term than at any term for years. The number of divorce cases has fallen off from thirteen cases last term to two this.

The bridge across Canyon Creek on the over land stage road east of Boise City broke down on the 7th inst. letting the horses stage and passengers into the stream. No body was hurt.

The toll road proprietors in Eastern Oregon on the road to Idaho, have made a very liberal reduction in tolls in order to correspond with the recent reductions on the Columbia river steamers.

The Mountaineer says that C. M. Lockwood and John Hadley have entered into a partnership in the Pioneer Stage Line, running between the Dalles and Kelton on the Union Pacific Railroad.

From the Scout we learn that the man Evans arrested in Roseburg, was taken before Justice Holland in Eugene city and having waived a preliminary examination was committed to jail in default of $500 bonds.

On the 5th ultimo March an act of Congress was passed establishing a post road between Portland and Netart Bay in the State of Oregon, and the inquiries necessary for the establishment of a mail route thereon.

S. J. Wheelock and Chas. Starr laid a plot to rob an old gentleman near Oakland a few days ago, but a third party who had promised to aid in the crime divulged the plan, and Starr and Wheelock had to leave the county.

The Roseburg Ensign says: The Coos Bay Wagon Road Company proposed to commence work on their road on the 26th inst. The Directors have arrived at the conclusion that work can be prosecuted cheaper and better by their agent than by contractors, and Mr. Wm. Weekly has been appointed to superintend the work.

The bids for furnishing articles for the Indian Department were opened at Salem last week in the presence of disinterested persons, and the contracts awarded as follows: Class 1, wagon timber, etc., E. J. Northrup & Co.; classes 2, 3, and 4, wagon irons, hardware and agricultural implements, Henry Failing; class 5, paints, oils, glass, etc., Hawley, Dodd & Co., all merchants of Portland.

The Democrats of Yamhill county have nominated the following county ticket: For State Senator, W. T. Newby; Representatives, Andy Shuck and Wm. M. Townsend; County Judge, Wm. M. Ramsey; County Clerk, Thomas B. Jackson; Sheriff, Joseph M. Baxter; Treasurer, James T. Hembree; Assessor, Thomas Griffin; Surveyor, Isaac Donovan; School Superintendent, J. H. Case.

PORTLAND, Wednesday, April 20, 1870.

GENTLEMEN:—In answer to your request which appeared in yesterday's issue, to preach again the discourse delivered at Mount Zion schoolhouse on "Light and Darkness," or "If a man die, shall he live again?"—I accept your invitation and will deliver the same in any hall in Portland you may please select.

JAS. B. WILLITS.

Hot ye young men who revel in fashion and wear store clothes, ye prudent men who buy goods to get the worth of your cash, ye old men who buy goods to last the remainder of your lives, or any other man or boy who wants to buy the cheapest and best clothing, go to Kohn & Fishel, who have just opened the largest stock of Gents' Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the city. Occupational Ailments.

First prescription a vitalizing elixir. Which ever is debarred by circumstance from the use of this invigorant from mind. The great object should be to choose the best popularity is a pretty good guarantee of merit in this second rating and intelligent age and tried by this criterion Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stands first and by its tonic, curative and regulating properties the present day. For months of years an engagement in labor compliments especially in cold or damp localities are often with the laboring man's vitality diminished. To all of these there is always in a moderate degree united this salubrious vegetable tonic to sustain and fortify the nature of the [illegible] to [illegible] It must be remembered that pure diffusive stimulant [illegible] and [illegible] with the fluid extracts to [illegible] and barks and herbs. The [illegible] is the time. But what is the [illegible] simply a single factor back of [illegible] present in each. None of them combines the three properties of alterative and an aperient. All these elements are blended in the Bitters to arrest these [illegible] and [illegible] It is also a blood depurient and an antiperiodic.

The baleful effect which that has been partially exhausted of its [illegible] by the use of calling products of vital organic [illegible] and when this destitution at a system is [illegible] every kind becomes deleterious and depressing in the extreme. To enable the system to bear up even for a few hours each day against the debilitating influence of a vitiated atmosphere a wholesome tonic and alterative is urgently required. This grand desideratum is supplied in Hostetter's Bitters which as a strength sustaining health protecting agent has no rival either among the usual or advertised medicines.

Shadows

Oh sadly fall a chill and ea
The shad we f the weary day.
And wafted fr in the wild A wel
A low long murmu ing s)
To say
"Shine on thou g lden sun
Thine hou will s n t
Ah well a day

Cold hitter the rain upon the world
And h mi ing in the North wind a s
And, 'mid the dark nes thickly curled,
Sad mes of sorrow seem to sigh
To sigh
Bloo m on thou shining r s
The short life soon will close
F r th m must die

Oh, sadly fall our ing hearts
The shadows of life a wea y way
And, heedless of the tear that starts
A mournful message seems to say
To say
' Thee and thy to the t mb
Soon, soon will fold in gl om;
Ah well a day

A REMARKABLE INVENTION.—The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal writes: The question whether electricity will ever be a substitute for steam seems likely to be settled. An invention, looking toward that issue has been reduced to a practical illustration. For some months there has been a model machine running in this vicinity propelled by electricity. The work that it performs astonishes all that behold it. In one of our colleges there is a magnet weighing a thousand pounds. Three hundred cups are necessary to operate it. In this new invention a magnet of forty pounds and nine cups more than doubles the power of the large magnet. Lathes, planing machines and other mechanical arrangements are driven by this power. To run an engine of twenty-horse power by this invention would require only a space of three feet long, two feet wide and two feet high. The cost per day would be thirty-five cents. On a steamship no coal would be required, and the space now used for coal and other machinery could be used for cargo. The stubborn resistance of electricity to mechanical use has, it is believed, been overcome. A continuous battery has been secured and other difficulties removed, principally through the coil of the magnet. If the invention works as well on the large scale as it does on the machinery to which it is now applied, steamships will soon ply the ocean under the new propelling power. A machine of great capacity is being constructed, and will soon be on exhibition in New York. The whole thing, mighty enough to carry a Cunarder to Liverpool, can be packed in a small trunk. I need scarcely add that this marvellous invention is the work of a Massachusetts boy."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

PORTLAND, April 19th, 1870.

The money market is steady, and with the absence of any severe pressure, financial matters are close. To say that [illegible] would perhaps be more than the condition of things warrants, but there is no well grounded [illegible] to anticipate anything like a financial crisis the [illegible] season. The aspect of agricultural matters is [illegible] while the product of our northern [illegible] will doubtless be greater than the average. By a private letter from Canyon City we learn that [illegible] the jubilant over the prospect of an abundant [illegible] for the operations of the present season.

The spring trade is opening with cheering activity throughout the State. Orders from the interior are being supplied by our wholesale dealers to a considerable extent at this time, and freights up the Willamet and Columbia [illegible] are increasing. From a Eugene paper we learn that the dull times incident to a long, wet winter are beginning to disappear as the spring advances. Local trade is beginning to improve, and business generally is looking up. The steamer Echo arrived at that place on Monday last, with an unusually large freight, in fact the largest ever brought to that place by one steamer.

There has been but little fluctuation in prices for several days in our market, the rates given generally being remarkably steady. The retail dealers and jobbers are doing a fair business.

Produce Receipts.

The wheat buyers have been bidding back their produce for higher [illegible] and [illegible] whereas, dispatched to [illegible] their wheat by the Willamet steamers, are now [illegible] and [illegible] to this market. The receipts by these boat are still large, consisting mainly of [illegible] and Flint. Yesterday the Senator and Alert [illegible] the Upper Willamette, bringing down 1,320 sks Bran, 804 bushels wheat, 83 half sks Flour, 135 sks Feed, 30 gunnies [illegible], 65 [illegible], 15 boxes Apples, 35 cases and 23 [illegible] packages.

The [illegible] receipts of vegetable produce coming in by [illegible] during the past week, have been considerable.

The [illegible] and warm atmosphere have had the effect to [illegible] the fruits much more plentiful.
